Dear colleagues,

We asked for Quality Enhancement Plan (QEP) topic idea submissions, and the campus did not disappoint! The QEP Topic Recommendation Team has reviewed, summarized, and discussed the initial list of QEP topics for several weeks now. We need new eyes, new brains, and new hearts to provide insight on these wonderful ideas. Group discussion about these topics is valuable to help us create the best list possible for consideration. Beyond the QEP, getting together to discuss important issues related to student learning and success can inspire collaboration. We know that everyone is tired and likely hesitant to add another meeting to your list. And, yet...here we are, asking you to do just that.

Please join us for a discussion about the LIST OF 10.

Faculty/Staff sessions
