The Honors Advisory Committee (HAC) met six times throughout the academic year: 15 September 2022, 10 November 2022, 08 December 2022, 12 January 2023, 16 March 2023, and 13 April 2023. The major issues and topics discussed are outlined according to academic semesters: Fall 2022 and Spring 2023.

Fall 2022:

- (1) Discussed the planning and execution of the first Honors Open Forum for students.
- (2) Highlighted the staff and student presentations as well as faculty attendance at the National Collegiate Honors Conference in Dallas, Texas.
- (3) Considered ways to improve the Study Abroad and Study Away experiences for students.
- (4) Talked about the Honors Student Association involvement in our town and gown communities.
- (5) Reviewed the recruitment and retention of students in the CHC.
- (6) Examined ideas to improve the Honors Faculty promotion review process.

Spring 2023

- (1) Talked about CHC connections with the SEED innovation hub.
- (2) Highlighted the activities of the Honors Student Association on and off campus.
- (3) Discussed the planning and execution of hosting the Virginias Collegiate Honors Conference.
- (4) Highlighted the Leadership Retreat and the need for assistance from professors for different activities.
- (5) Discussed the recruiting of prospective students.
- (6) Reviewed the Honors Faculty promotion review process.

Respectfully Submitted,
Christopher L. Kukk
