

Institutional Review Board Annual Report 2022-23

Members

Jo Morrison, Kinesiology (Chair)

Eric Laws, Psychology

David Locasio (Education)

Jaquelyn Secoy, Music

Dr. Robert Nash, Community Member

The primary goal of the IRB is to protect the rights and welfare of human research participants through the careful review, approval, and oversight of human subjects research projects. This oversight is critical to ensuring confidence in the integrity of the researchers, research programs and the institution.

In AY 2022-23<sup>1</sup> the IRB has completed the following:

Full IRB Reviews	7
Continuing Reviews	1
Expedited Reviews
• Expedited Research Category	93
• Exempt Research Category	50
Reliance Agreements	4
Human Subjects Research Determinations	15
Proposals with FERPA Authorizations	3
Non-compliance reports	2

The IRB continues to develop guidance, educational material, and templates that reflect evolving norms and accepted standards in human research protection programs.

---

<sup>1</sup> Includes summer 2022