III.   Rationale for the program:

In order to comply with SCHEV directives, the School Library Media Concentration of the Master of Science in Education needs to become a stand-alone program. We have used this opportunity to update our curriculum to reflect changes in the field.

IV.   Resource Assessment
        A.   Estimate additional staff requirements for this program.
        B.   Estimate the amount and cost of equipment, library resources, computer hardware and software, and other resources that will be required to carry out this program.

No additional staff, equipment, library resources, computer hardware or software needed.

V.   Anticipated enrollment in program after five (5) years.   100

VI.   Affected Departments or Programs.

       If the proposed program could have an impact on other departments or programs, the appropriate affected chairs or program directors should be notified of the proposed changes.
       Where teaching licensure may be affected, the licensure officer should also be notified.
