

Proposed wording for change in time period of evaluations

Current wording (p. 293 FPPM):

The administration and completion of evaluations are to take place in the last week of classes being evaluated

Proposed wording:

The administration and completion of evaluations are to take place during the two weeks prior to final examinations.